

SOCIETY NOTES

Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalistic sorority, will hold its first convention at Lawrence, Kan., in May. There are now twelve chapters of the sorority located at the Universities of Kansas, Washington, Indiana, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Montana, Nebraska, Minnesota, Missouri, Stanford University and the Kansas Agricultural College.

The chapter of the University of Missouri was founded in 1911 and now has an active membership of eight.

The dance that was to have been given February 17 by the Alpha Delta Pi sorority has been postponed because of the quarantine on the sorority.

A dinner was given last night at Harris' by the members of the Women's Council in honor of Miss Gladys Udell, retiring president, who finished her work in the University last semester.

James G. Lotspeich of Sheldon will be initiated into the Dana Press Club tonight.

Mrs. Joseph C. King will give a line party at the Columbia Theater tomorrow afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Clarisse Ryan. Other guests will be Mrs. C. R. Moulton, Mrs. C. W. Leaphart and Misses Virginia Wheat, Mary Elliff, Marjorie Jones, Frances Meriwether, Mary Margaret McBride, and Roberta Kellogg. From the theater the party will go to the home of Mrs. King for tea.

Mrs. O. M. Barnett will give a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1321 Keiser avenue, in honor of the members of the Sigma Nu fraternity.

Two tables at bridge were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. E. Thornton. Valentine boxes filled with bonbons were given the guests as favors.

A tea will be given from 4 to 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon by Mrs. L. H. Hannah complimentary to her sister, Miss Sarah Conlon of Hannibal who is visiting her. Mrs. Clayborn Jackson of Mexico, Mo., is also visiting Mrs. Hannah.

The Hannibal Club had an oyster dinner Wednesday evening in the Missouri Union Building. After dinner, A. J. Scheinman, president, called a short business meeting, at which Miss Julia Scott was elected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. B. E. S. Ely, Mrs. Lottie Platt and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Luke were chaperons.

Miss Elizabeth C. Harris and Mrs. Harlan Thompson of Kansas City, former students of the University, arrived in Columbia yesterday to attend the Kappa Alpha Theta anniversary banquet Saturday night and initiation Sunday.

The party given Thursday afternoon by the Woman's Council in the women's parlors for the purpose of bringing the University women together in a social way was more successful than any other method that has been tried. Dancing was the chief diversion. Ices were served. The council will probably give a party of this kind annually.

Stephens College Notes

Misses Lillian McCracken and Maud Biggs of Hardin College were the guests of Miss Very Carey for the week-end.

President and Mrs. James M. Wood left Friday for New York. They will visit some of the colleges and universities of the East.

Misses Louvella Hall and Laura May Simpson of La Belle were the week-end guests of Misses Velva Thompson and Bertha Lee Loudermilk.

Miss Maurine Hone of Knox City is visiting friends in the college this week. Miss Hone was graduated from Stephens College last year.

Miss Minnie Huder spent the week-end at her home at Booneville.

Miss Naomi Walton of Armstrong is the guest of her sister, Miss Adah Mae Walton.

Miss Dorothy Whitaker returned Monday from a short visit to her home at Buncheon.

Miss Marjorie Brown was the guest of friends at Jefferson City for the week-end.

Miss Elizabeth Mann of Howard Payne College was the guest of Miss Mildred McGhee Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Zelia Carter spent the week-end at her home at Centralia.

Miss Ruth Bosserman of Sedalia was the guest of Miss Maurine Knapp Sunday.

Misses Naron and Oleta Stidham spent the week-end at Howard Payne College, where they were the guests of Miss Esther Griffing.

Miss Vitula Van Dyne of the University was the guest of Miss Ruth Kidd at dinner Sunday.

The following girls have enrolled for the second semester: Miss Christine Cravens of Neosho, Miss Lucille Riddle of Vinita, Okla., and Miss Vida Taylor of St. Joseph.

The weekly Y. W. C. A. meeting was held last Thursday evening in the college library, with Miss Ethel Cabbell as leader. The subject was "Is Your Bible Dusty?"

MOVIES RIVAL OF SHAKESPEARE

H. J. Hadfield, Interpreter, Optimistic as to Fate of Drama in America.

H. J. Hadfield, Shakespearean interpreter, who was in Columbia last night, is optimistic as to the fate of Shakespeare in America. He says the movies are the greatest rivals of good plays, and in some respects he does not approve of them. He remarked that not until two weeks ago had he attended a moving picture show in twelve years. Two weeks ago he went to see "Romeo and Juliet." It will now be another twelve years before he goes again. Shakespeare would be indignant if he could come back to life and see the manner in which his characters are interpreted on the screen today, he says.

"As far as possible I sink my identity in the identity of the character without trying to copy other people," said Mr. Hadfield, when asked what school of drama he followed. He has been studying and interpreting Shakespeare almost all of his life. During the past ten years he has been reading and interpreting, for the most part in America; previous to that he was on the stage for fifteen years in both America and England.

OLIVE KLINE IS YOUNG ARTIST

Coloratura Soprano Is Still in Early Twenties—Formerly Studied Piano.

Olive Kline, who will appear next Monday night under the auspices of Phi Mu Alpha, is still in her early twenties. Several years ago she studied with the intention of becoming a concert pianist, and it was only by chance engagements in New York that her coloratura work attracted critical attention.

Herbert Witherspoon, the distinguished basso, has recently coached Miss Kline and pronounces her voice "one of the most beautiful" ever heard in this country.

Miss Kline is a relative of Mrs. A. H. Nolle, wife of Dr. A. H. Nolle, instructor in German in the University.

Dean Miller to Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

Dean Walter Miller of the Graduate School will attend a meeting in Chicago, February 16 and 17, of the Committee of Council of the student department of the Y. M. C. A. of North America. Dean Miller was chosen faculty representative from the Middle West for this meeting at the Lake Geneva Conference last summer. The committee will discuss the larger policies of student Y. M. C. A. work.
